© 2009 TOP, Peach Princess. www.jastusa.com/moero/

Important information—Please Read

This computer game contains artistic, fictional portrayals of sexually explicit material. You must be 18 or 21 years of age or older to play this game and/or view the images inside. No character engaged in any sexually explicit event is intended to be portrayed as being under 18 years of age, and no actual or identifiable minor was used during the process of creating the artwork or characters portrayed in this game. This computer game presents artistic accounts of sexual relationships designed solely for adult fantasy entertainment. Further, it asserts that sex is an important aspect of adult relationships. This game contains anime-style, artistic portrayals of sexual interactions and fantasies using various fictional settings and events, and is intended to be enjoyed only by mature, adult individuals. Please note, however, that the completely fictional sexual relationships portrayed by this game's artwork do not always exhibit "safe sex" practices. This game is a fantasy and should be viewed as such by mature adults only.

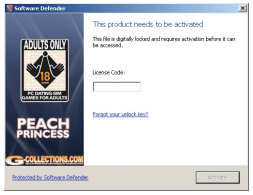
This game is copyright © 2009 TOP and Peach Princess, all rights reserved. As a small independent game publisher, Peach Princess needs your support if we're to bring you great English-translated dating-sim games in the future. Software piracy is the #1 barrier keeping us from making these fantastic games available to you, and we ask that you support us so we can help to make this unique genre of entertainment available to more and more fans. If you see our games being pirated, please let us know via e-mail, and use "frown power" to let the individuals know that doing harm to the fledgling English dating-sim market by stealing games is not okay with you. Thank you.

Installation

To install Moero Downhill Night, insert the install DVD-ROM into your computer. The installer should start automatically, but if it doesn't, open the volume via My Computer and click the Setup icon. Follow the instructions in the installer, placing the game DVD in the drive when prompted.

Activation & Content Management Philosophy

Once installed you can start the game by selecting the Downhill Night icon in the Start menu, or by clicking the icon on the desktop. The first time you run the game you will be prompted to input your Software Defender activation code (at right). An internet connection is required at the time of first activation but not after that.



At Peach Princess, we believe that providing our customers with an enduring, quality product is job number one. To maintain the value of your investment and ensure we are able to produce more great games in the future, we have included anti-piracy protection as part of this release. We offer the following unconditional promises:

- A no hassle, one time activation process on up to five computers (which can be reset upon request)
- No internet connection required to play, and no monitoring software
- Activation "sunset clause": following the initial period of sales, an activation-free patch will be made available via our website for you, to guarantee that you'll always be able to play the game in the future.

We feel that these measures will help ensure the value of your investment in our product as well as our own, and represent a fair compromise in the murky waters of the digital copyright age. We thank you for your support and understanding. For more information, see http://www.jastusa.com/activation/

Dramatis Personae

Michi, age 19

A cheerful taxi-driving girl with dreams of being a racer, she picks you up on the mountainside and adopts you as her navigator. Will you bring her to love?

Maria, age 24

A holy nun in the convent on the Himeda mountain. She has a secret guilty need for the thrill of racing, which you're more than happy to indulge.

Lily, age 19

A mysterious girl and part time race queen, with dreams of becoming an ace navigator. If you spend time with her, will you discover her mystery?

Yuuna, age 18

A bright and competitive girl who hates losing a battle, whether a war of words or a race on the mountainside. She might join you, if you give her a reason.

Kyouko, age 20

A rebellious girl who wants to race instead of inherit her family's business, she threatens to force you to work for her if you lose a race to her.

Game Play

Launch the game by selecting it in the Windows Start menu. The main menu options are New Game (starts a new game), Load Game (loads a saved game), CG Mode (view game CGs), Scenario Replay (re-experience erotic scenes), Sound Mode (play game music), Options (customize gameplay), and Quit.

To play, choose the Start option. You portray Daichi, a young Japanese man with dreams of racing who works a job delivering ramen on the mountainside of the Himeda ridge. When he has an accident and wakes up in the arms of a beautiful girl called Michi, he discovers a hidden genius for navigating the hairpin turns and "drifting" inclines of the mountains that changes his life forever.

Your goal is to move through the story by making decisions at different parts, which move the story in a new direction each time. You'll guide the course of Daichi's races, making key decisions between segments of lush, 3D digital animation. Explore each girl's unique game ending and see what love and passions you can discover with each!

Game System

The image above is the game screen, which shows the game story and dialogue. At various times, you will be presented with choices which will affect the progression of the game story.

To access various game options, click on the "menu" wheel above the text box, then click "Option". Options include Screen Mode (toggles window modes), Text Speed, Text Syle, Auto Skip Speed (the speed at which text advances when Skip is enabled), Skip (skips through messages quickly), Skip Unread Text (skips all text, or only parts of the game you've already viewed), Auto Forwarding options, and Effects Speed. A second tab on the right side labeled Sound/Movie also contains various audio-visual options.

A complete game walkthrough is available if you need help getting all the endings for the game. To request the walkthrough, email the game activation code to support@g-collections.com. If you need help, the support staff at http://www.peachprincess.com and http://www.jastusa.com are available to answer your questions.

Thanks for supporting Japan's amazing dating-sim games, and enjoy!

Game Activation Code

The activation code for this game is printed below: